LITTLE DRUMMER BOY MARK KOZELEK

RELEASE DATE: 11/28/2006

On November 28th Caldo Verde Records will release a limited edition (10,000 North America) 20-song live compilation entitled Little Drummer Boy Live by Red House Painters, Sun Kil Moon songwriter Mark Kozelek. The album was recorded live to CDR during Kozelek's European and North American performances this past year.

The double-CD encompasses Mark Kozelek's entire career, including selections from his early days in Red House Painters ("Katy Song," "Bubble"), Old Ramon-era ("Void," "Cruiser"), Sun Kil Moon ("Salvador Sanchez," "Duk Koo Kim"), as well as personalized covers of Modest Mouse, Cars and AC/DC, and two new previously unreleased tracks, "Moorestown" and "Unlit Hallway."

Other highlights include an early performance of "Carry Me Ohio" (recorded at the First Unitarian Church in Philadelphia in 2003), "Little Drummer Boy" (performed in Helsinki the past December), and "Mistress" (recorded at London's Conway Hall during last year's 4AD festival). Guitarist Phil Carney (Red House Painters, Sun Kil Moon) joined Mark on several of these dates and appears on much of the album.

Little Drummer Boy Live is a specially priced two disc set that is available one time only as a limited edition of 10,000 and will NOT be available digitally.
